Dear General Walters

I wish to express my personal appreciation for your appearance at the Academy on 26 April 1973 as part of the Distinguished Speakers Program. I found your presentation most interesting and I know the cadets did too. It certainly was a rare opportunity for them to get some valuable insights into a very important subject. It is such talks as yours that have made our Distinguished Speakers Program the success that it is.

Sincerely

A. P. CLARK, Lt General, USAF

Dear General Walters

I personally would like to thank you for a really excellent presentation to the cadets last Thursday evening. Your talk has been a topic of discussion - at the "secret" level, of course - for the past several days. Indeed, you gave the intelligence career field a badly needed shot in the arm. The natural emphasis in an institution such as this is on the combat mission. Therefore, I particularly appreciated your presentation because it contributed greatly to cadet awareness that there are other important career fields.

We certainly will take advantage of your kind offer to visit you in Washington. We try to take a group of cadets to the Capital every spring to visit Congress and selected governmental agencies. Your organization will be high on our list next year.

Sincerely

Lieutenant General A. P. Clark, USAF
Superintendent
United States Air Force Academy

Dear General Clark:

Mr. Helms has referred to me your letter of 15 November inviting him to speak at the U.S. Air Force Academy in April. As you know, he will leave CIA in the spring for another U.S. Government position.

We have agreed in principle that a senior CIA officer should accept the invitation to speak to the cadets. Since Director Helms will not be here, I propose to accept your invitation to speak in his stead.

If this is satisfactory, I suggest that you have a member of your staff contact my Executive Assistant, [redacted] Area Code [redacted] to arrange details.

Gen Walters,
a Dr Bovis of the USAF Academy called regarding your acceptance of the invitation to speak there. He said that their April calendar is quite full, and that they would really like to try to get you out there in February.

He said that from their viewpoint
the ideal date would be on the evening of 1 Feb. Alternative dates would be 13 or 20 Feb.

I explained that next month
would be a very busy time here
but promised to discuss his request
with you.
